

EMERGENCY PREPARE-A-THON

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 2021

10:00 am – 1:00 pm

Rainbow Senior Center

293 Buffalo Avenue, Lindenhurst

All Ages Welcome!

In conjunction with Legislator Kevin McCaffrey's office, the Lindenhurst Memorial Library is hosting an Emergency Preparedness event. Giveaway bags will be available for attendees to gather information and emergency kit supplies. Learn how to make an emergency plan for your home, family, and pets. Light refreshments will be served.

Presentations:

10:00-11:00am: Citizens Preparedness Corp.

This comprehensive training teaches about emergency preparedness, disasters, evacuations, fire safety, basic aid and more. Conducted by Dr. Margaret Sukhram, MPH, MA, NP, volunteer for the American Red Cross.

Teens in grades 6 and above will earn 2 hours of community service credit for their attendance.

11:00am-12:00pm: LI's Power Grid: Storms, Challenges, and the Future. Richard Murdocco, award-winning columnist & Adjunct Professor Stony Brook. Register now.

12:00-12:30 pm: Sgt. Bob Platin from the Suffolk County SCPA will give an informational talk about animal care and how to keep your pets and other animals safe in an emergency. No registration needed.

Organizations in Attendance

Lindenhurst Community Cares

Lindenhurst Memorial Library Youth Services

Lindenhurst Memorial Library Adult Services

Long Island Cares

SCPD Explorers

SC Department of Fire, Rescue and Emergency Services (FRES)

SC Office of Emergency Management (OEM)

Town of Babylon Animal Shelter

Co-hosted by

Legislator Kevin J. McCaffrey and the Lindenhurst Memorial Library

